

Building general position properties into decomposition spaces

Denise HALVERSON

27.5.2015

Abstract

General position properties are key to characterizations of topological spaces as manifolds and manifold factors. Methods for constructing decomposition spaces to have or not have certain types of general position properties will be presented.