

Oleh NYKYFORCHYN

Covariant topological functors

Abstract: Covariant functors in the category of compacta are classical objects of study in categorical topology. In the talk we will present the most important functors related to hyperspaces and measure theory. We will show that they belong to the classes of (almost, weakly) normal functors and are functorial parts of monads, and consider applications of these facts to topological problems.