

Oleh NYKYFORCHYN

Covariant functors related to measures and functionals

Abstract: The probability measure functor in the category of compacta has nice topological and algebraic properties. We will discuss extensions and generalizations of this functor, related to different classes of set functions and functionals. Classical problems, recent development and applications will be presented.